Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 Notice is hereby given that on March 15, 2007 a proposed consent decree in United States v. Charles E. Carlson, Front Range Royalties, Ltd., and Frontenac Mining, Ltd., Civil Action No. 06-cv-00275-WYD-MEH was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of Colorado. In this action the United States brought claims under Sections 107 and 113(g) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 ("CERCLA"), as amended, 42 U.S.C. 9607 and 9613(g), seeking the recovery of costs incurred and to be incurred by the Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") in response to releases or threatened releases of hazardous substances at and from the property owned by the Defendants within the Clear Creek Superfund Site, in Gilpin County, Colorado. The ability-to-pay consent decree resolves claims related to acidic drainage and metals loading into Clear Creek resulting from past mining operations on property owned by the defendants. The consent decree, among other things, provides EPA with access to and use of the defendants' property for remedial purposes and requires defendants to sell certain properties and to remit to EPA a percentage of the net sale proceeds up to the judgment amount of up to $200,000. The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the consent decree.
